We appreciate that exchange rates and transferring money between the NZ and the UK may not be high on the list, but making it a priority, may mean the difference of 1000's of dollars!

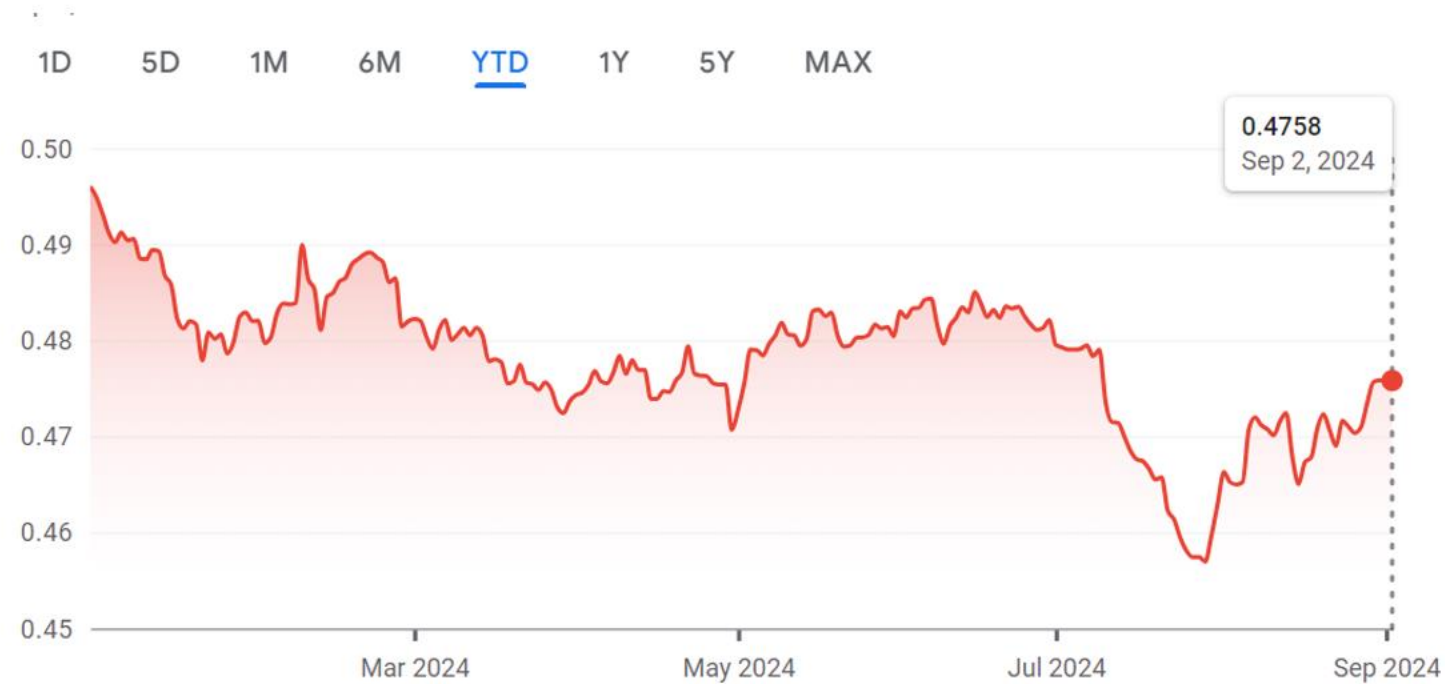

One thing is definite when exporting,
at some point you will transfer money
internationally...

- Set up costs
- Paying invoices
- Paying suppliers
- Bringing revenue/funds back to NZ
- And more!

Timing, FX options and expertise is key

- January 1 2024 - 100K NZD = £49,600 GBP
- July 29 2024 – 100K NZD = £45,690 GBP
- Sept 2 2024 – 100K NZD = £47,580 GBP
- Jan to July difference of nearly £4K or $8K NZD
