MSIPANI PRIMARY SCHOOL VISITATION

I was given a task to lead a school service of children's different churches. We read the scripture from the book of John 21 vs 15-18 while Jesus was asking Peter to be a good shepherd. I encouraged teachers to take extra care about their school children and guide them with the help of our loving father Jesus Christ. The school head was given a great thanks. We pray the Lord's prayer with all children and teachers.

TEACHERS MEETING AT MKIWA.

We had a meeting as teachers. We discussed about children's trip and baptism of new comers and many more things in children's side.

CHILDREN'S CHURCH SERVICE

With 21 children were attended the service lesson was from the book of Genesis 37 children participate very well. We gave them homework after the lesson.

PREACHERS TRAINING

I attended the training of preachers with other members from different circuits for the benefit of knowing much about how to preach the gospel of life through the using of biblical scriptures.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

I attended the end of month gathering in my circuit. We prayed for our children to be protected at schools and homes. We read from the book of Proverbs 3 vs 5 and John 16 vs 33 about troubles found in the world but in Christ there is joy and peace.

PRAYER REQUESTS

- Churches to continue supporting children's programs.
- Prayer for the coming children's ministry trip.
- Prayer for our children say no to drugs.

CONCLUION

Most of our children are showing that they are doing good manners that pleasing God. So they have the privilege of leading others to Christ finally we have a great hope that the grace of God will keep us going in Jesus name.
