SECTION 6: OTHER ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

As a circuit we suffered a great loss when Zennit church's roof was blown away by a hail storm. We experienced this month. Also some of our church members roofs were blown away. Therefore we want to thank God that no life was lost.

- * Wednesdays at Langwani church have been dedicated to visiting those who are sick, and the old-age who can not come to church because of age. Every Wednesday morning we do visit as a church and have special services.
- * In the evenings we do have prayer services on Wednesday. We want to thank God that through these prayers many local people do attend.
- * 17 November, after our main service we did have a baby dedication service of a newly born baby boy. We dedicated him to God and prayed for him.

I also have to fellowship with the youths.

SECTION 7. CONCLUSION:

The year is about to end, as a church we always have a special Sunday to celebrate and exchange Christmas presents and is going to happen on the 1st of December. I would also want to thank our overseas brothers who taking care of our financial needs.
