ENTERTAINMENT SCHEDULE

1:00 PM Serpico & Tunesifter
This duo perform new tunes carved from crate digging through jazz and funk records, electronic beats and bass lines, melded with live Trumpet, Rhodes keyboard and Electric Guitar.

1:30 PM Official Welcome
Mayor Rachel Reese and the Argentinian Ambassador Mr Fausto Mariano López Crozet will officially welcome the teams and visitors to the Nelson Tasman region. Local schools and community groups will also participate in the welcome celebrations.

2:00 PM Buskudara
This five piece delivers grooves that include anything from samba to funk, Indian and high energy klezma. It's a horns, percussion, and bass ensemble with the odd bit of guitar and violin and improvised solos to make you go Ooooooo.

3:00 PM Press Roll
Ryan Beehre (Serpico, ex-Minuit) and Martin Emo (DJ Tunesifter, Buskudara, HSBC). A "Press Roll" is a type of snare-drum fill played in Jazz and Funk which is the foundation for making their grooves. They have a special Latin set prepared based on time living in Latin America and Cuba. It's an energetic live show with a groove that is made for dancing.

4:00 PM Konkoba
Playing traditional West African instruments djembe, dunduns, bells and shekere, the Konkoba players deliver a set of high energy dance music. Metallic timelines, earthy bass drum beats, fiery solos create polyrhythms which are designed to make your body move.

4:45 PM Drum Jam
After the Konkoba set there will be a facilitated "Drum Jam" to build the energy before the All Blacks vs Argentina game so come on down, bring your drum and connect with the crowd, Join in and let the beat "entrain" you!

Plus even more throughout the day...

- Check out the street performers along the main drag!
- Pablo The Puzzle will be running two shows from 2pm and invites you to come solve The Puzzle. His exciting circus show features multi-award winning skills, off the wall humour and just a few safety concerns!
- A little further down Trafalgar Street besides the Argentinian food vendor, Viva La Vaca, The Sambassadors will be playing their high energy mix of drum music and encouraging you to get up and dance from 1.30pm.
- Tango Libre Dance School will also come down at around 2.15pm
